

WELCOME TO THE WORDCRAFT COLLECTIVE

The Wordcraft Collective is run by volunteers who are passionate about writing. We want to share our enthusiasm with you through the creation of a collective platform for writing, exchanging ideas, helping each other solve our writing troubles and offering short courses and workshops.

All of this needs resources for such things as hiring rooms and inviting inspiring and renown speakers. We rely on our own inputs and donations to keep the Collective, where everyone who comes is a member, as accessible as possible for everybody.

If you can donate to enable us to carry on with this work, you can do so via Payconiq at the QR code below, or by a quick transfer to our bank account.

Many thanks in advance and we hope your writing bring you joy and rewards!
